

Canterbury Street Reconstruction (Emergency) Boston Pre-Release Center Boston, MA

Completion Date: June 2006

Total Project Cost: $1,500,000

Architect

Whitney Atwood Norcross Associates, Inc. :

Charles A. Paradie Jr., AIA, Principal in Charge; Christopher Alles, Project Manager

Consultants

Bryant Associates (Civil): John Cusack, Project Manager

Contractor

I.W. Harding Construction Company: David Stahley, Project Manager; James Shalek, Superintendent

DCAM Team Members

David B. Perini, Commissioner; Michael L. McKimmey, Deputy Commissioner

Design and Construction: Michael J. Lambert, Director; Brian Novak, Deputy Director;

James Tanin, Project Manager; Robert Gray, Project Manager; Robert Anderson, Resident Engineer

User Agency: Department of Correction

Jeffrey Quick, Director of Resource Management; Linda Bartee, Superintendent - Massachusetts Alcohol and Substance Abuse Center; Ronald Cage, Deputy Superintendent - Massachusetts Treatment Center; Paul Bossy, Project Manager

Brief Program Description

This project involved abandoning a deteriorated section of Canterbury Street and construction of a new 1,000 foot road, Canterbury Lane, with underground utilities, site lighting, traffic signaling, sidewalks and signage for the Boston Pre-Release Center.

Whitney Atwood Norcross Associates, Inc. c/o STV Incorporated, Boston - MA
Construction – Winner